

Dr. James Reed is one of the two psychiatrists in Cochise County, Arizona a rural community that is home to 125,000 people and has no mental health facility. He has worked in Sierra Vista for 35 years. He graduated from the Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine and specializes in Child & Adolescent Psychiatry, Neurology and Psychiatry.